Revenue growth of 71% following Taylor acquisition albeit in difficult trading conditions GP margin dilutes as expected with the Taylor acquisition

Taylor acquisition transforms financial results, albeit in tough trading conditions

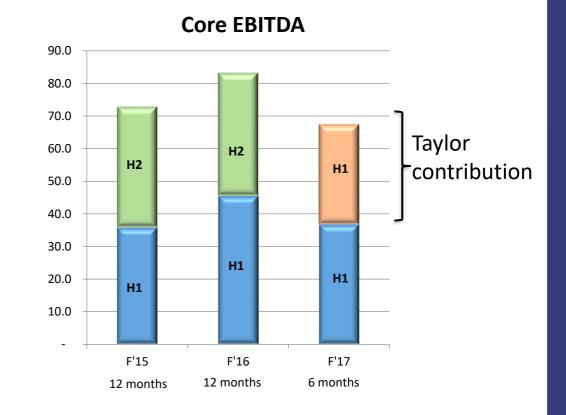

- The inclusion of Taylor for the first time boosts H1 turnover by 71%
- Tough trading conditions prevailed through H1 for the Trellidor Group
- Some relief is anticipated in H2 with an easing of the drought and improved mining performance

Revenue

- The inclusion of Taylor boosts EBITDA by 45% and Core EBITDA by 48%
- Lower volumes in the tough economic conditions hurt margins
- Super inflationary input costs driven by a strongly weaker Rand in early 2016, are seen to be mitigating through H2
- Core EBITDA has been adjusted for certain once of expenses and IFRS required costs for business combinations - see slide 12 for detailed reconciliation
- Forex losses of R2.2m (Dec 2015: R2.2m gain)

SALES ANALYSIS - TRELLIDOR DIVISION THE ULTIM

- Africa sales growth of 17% is pleasing despite currency shortages in several countries.
- African economies reliant on oil remain weak, mainly Nigeria, Angola
- Subdued trading in South Africa main centres and outlying areas
- Impact of drought and weak resource prices are now easing and a recovery is anticipated in the outlying regions in H2 F'17

Geographical presence

Africa growth of 17%

SALES ANALYSIS - TRELLIDOR DIVISION THE ULTIMATE CRIME BARRIER (cont.)

- Growth in new product sales of 18%, including the Trellidor Security Shutter launched in July 2016
- Diversified product range spans income groups which mitigates weak middle and upper middle class economy

New product sales now 25% of revenue

TRADING MARGIN - TRELLIDOR DIVISION

- Relatively stable trading margin despite rand devaluation and muted sales growth
- Super inflationary labour costs continue, mitigated by improved utilisation
- Manufacturing overhead cost contained
- Materials costs have been under pressure but well managed in the conditions
- Imported material prices are mitigating with the stronger Rand, but local steel prices are strongly increasing, offsetting gains

Highly profitable sustainable trading margin

SALES ANALYSIS - TAYLOR

- Concentration of sales in the Western and Southern Cape
- Branch in Johannesburg
- Geographic growth opportunity using proven Trellidor model
- Tough trading conditions –
  6% growth on prior H1 2015

Geographic expansion opportunity

- Turnover well spread by product
- Constant innovation and development to keep up with trends
- Good growth in Roller Blinds and PVC Shutters in the period
- Custom designed and manufactured

Well spread product range – focus on "Lifestyle" product set

- Gross profit margins are relatively stable across the product range
- Exposure to Rand fluctuations as most materials imported, offset by management of price
- Efficient factory with significant spare capacity in Blinds divisions

Trading margin - costs as % of net sales

Well managed margins

Cash raised on listing utilised in July 2016 for the purchase of the Taylor and NMC business

PROSPECTS

- Bedding down the Taylor acquisition and driving growth opportunities after "earn out" period
- Africa remains focus for International growth. Two new Nigeria franchisees now fully trained and paid up and sales activity anticipated in H2. Sales already received from the DRC
- Improving economic conditions in the outlying regions of South Africa anticipated with the easing of the drought and better resource prices boosting mining
- Tough overall economic conditions are expected to remain, and continued focus on overhead control and efficiency remains

Growth strategies implemented - enhanced foundation to grow
