

TRELLIDOR HOLDINGS LIMITED
(1997/105401/06)

MANUAL FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION
(Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000)

1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2002, herein after referred to as PAIA, gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information in records held by a private or public body that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. The required procedural issues regarding a request are set out in the PAIA. This also includes the grounds for refusal or partial refusal of such request. This manual outlines the mechanisms to be followed by a requester of information as prescribed by PAIA.

The Act recognises that the right to access cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations including, but not limited to:

- limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy
- commercial confidentiality
- effective, efficient-and good governance and
- in a manner which balances that right with any other rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of South Africa.

In this manual, a requester will be able to view the categories of information which the Company possesses and the procedure to follow to request access to such information.

2. SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF MANUAL

The purpose of this manual is to inform requesters of the procedural and other requirements which a request for information must meet as prescribed by the Act. Trellidor Holdings Limited (“the Company”, “we” or “us” refers to Trellidor Holdings Limited) is a registered company in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa. This manual will cover the records of the Company.

Comprising two main trading brands, Trellidor and Taylor, is the leading manufacturer of custom-made solutions with an extensive franchisee and distributor network that spans South Africa, Africa, United Kingdom, Israel, and European countries. Annexure A to this manual lists all Directors of the Company.

6. RECORDS OF TRELIDOR HOLDINGS LIMITED

This section serves as a reference to the records that the Company holds to facilitate a request in terms of the Act.

Please note that accessibility of the records below may be subject to the grounds of refusal which is set out in section 7 of this manual. The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the following subject and categories:

6.1 Personnel records

"Personnel" refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of the Company and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of the Company. This includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary, and part-time staff, as well as contract workers and is noted as follows:

- Personal records provided by personnel
- Records provided by a third party relating to personnel
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records
- Correspondence relating to personnel
- Training schedules and materials

6.2 Customer related records

A "customer" refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from the Company and is noted as follows:

- Records provided by a customer to a third party acting for or on behalf of the Company;
- Records provided by a third party.
- Records generated by or within the Company pertaining to its customers, including transaction records.

6.3 Trellidor Holdings Limited Records

The Company's records are noted as follows:

- Agreements and contracts
- Financial records

- Marketing records
- Internal policies, procedures, and correspondence
- Product records
- Records held by officials of the Company.

These records include but are not limited to the records which pertain to the Company's own affairs. The Company may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies, and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to the Company.

6.4 Information Automatically Available (In terms of section 51 of PAIA)

No notices have been published on the categories of records automatically available without a person having to request access thereto in terms of the Act. The following records are however automatically available to any person requesting this information and it is therefore not necessary to apply for access in terms of this Act.

- Trellidor Holdings Limited Annual Financial Statements

- Property Records and Documents of Title
- Share Scheme Information
- Statutory Records and Information
- Supplier Records
- Trademarks, Patents and Designs
- Correspondence and Memoranda
- Any records that are required to be made available in terms of the Companies Act No. 71 of 2008 and the listing requirements as laid down by the JSE, as amended from time to time, shall be made available for inspection by interested parties.

7. GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

Access to certain records may be or must be denied on the grounds set out in the Act. This includes:

- Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person;
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of third party;
- Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of third party;
- Mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- Commercial information of private body.
- Mandatory protection of research information of third party, and protection of research information of privacy body.
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

8. REQUEST PROCEDURES

- The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.
- The requester must complete the prescribed form available on the website of the SOUTH AFRICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION at www.sahrc.org.za , and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the Information Officer using the contact details provided in this Manual.
- The prescribed form which is also available on the South African Human Rights Commission's website (www.sahrc.org.za) and the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development's website (www.doj.gov.za) must be filled in with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - Record or records requested.
 - The identity of the requester.
 - Which form of access is required if the request is granted.
 - The postal address or facsimile number of the requester.
- The requester must state the nature of the right for which access to the requested records is required. The courts have indicated that access to the records must be 'necessary' for the exercise or protection of the right so stated.
- The requester shall be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request verbally.
- The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.

9. APPLICABLE TIME PERIODS

- Subject to the provisions in the Act in respect of extensions, the Company will process the request within 30 business days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- The 30-business day period may be extended by a further period of not more than 30 business days if the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the Company or the records are not located at the Company, or consultations amongst divisions and/or subsidiaries of the Company or another private body are required.

10. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY

- Records held by the Company may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met as per the preceding paragraphs in this Manual.
- A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of the Company.
- Other requester – This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, the Company is not obliged to grant access. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

11. FEES

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee.
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing of the request. Refer to Annexure B of this Manual.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion (being not more than one third) of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Annexure B. The requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the request fee or a deposit.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

12. DECISION

The Company will, within 30 business days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. If a request for access is granted, such notice will advise of the access fee; the form in which access will be given and that the requestor may take action against the fee, the form of access and the procedure (including the period allowed) for lodging an application.

The 30-business day period with which the Company has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty business days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Company and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. The Company will notify the requester within thirty business days of receipt of the request, in writing should an extension be sought, the period of the extension, the reasons therefore and the available action the requester may take by lodging a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application to court.

13. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN THE COMPANY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Internal Remedies

The Company does not have an internal appeal procedure, therefore the decision made by the Information Officer is final and requesters will have to exercise such external remedies if the request for information is refused and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

External Remedies

Subject to the provisions of the Act, a requestor that is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 business days of notification of the decision, lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or apply to a Court for relief. Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with an Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 180 business days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief. The Constitutional Court, High Court or other court of similar status has jurisdiction over these applications.
